The wrath of religion by Luis Carlos Tenorio Garcia

- 1 Fear is the least you'd expect from religion.
You're told to envision the afterlife, the glorious honor of killing more than five,
the man on cross. Forget
- 5 the life of an infidel, for he is not worthy, give no mercy.
In reality, he is the sprout of enlightenment.
The apple, Eve was forbidden.
- Deprived from close mindedness he opens the door of knowledge.
- 10 The protector of curiosity his mind stays open to breathe.
Instead of lies and false prophecy, listen to the language of Gaia, forget this so called Messiah.
- So many killed in the crusades
- 15 now we're back to the same mistakes.
This constant rearranging of minds to commit great crimes, for thy, for thy.
- Keeps me up at night because soon it will be our fight.
- 20 Maybe at that instant inside the church, mosque, temple or street he said, it's what you need to succeed.
It is the end of your inner peace,
my friend.
- Continue the path to true meaning
- 25 make your purposes neglect the extremist who proposes.
- A moment of silence for the children in Sirte
Our 150 Kenyan brothers and sisters
- It's denying knowledge to the poor.
- 30 That's pumping up their score.
Overrating a super being Just to keep them kneeling, so be it.
- No difference between God, Buddha and Allah.

35 Nor Heaven and Jannah.

Promised the same fortunes to relieve themselves from mishaps and misfortunes.

40 Like wolves on sheep
stalking those who are in the most need.
Children are the most keen to these extremes.

45 Forgive my direct approach but it sad to see brilliant minds go to waste coast to coast
So many used as means to ends,
they have no idea what will become of them.

Going straight to the truth

50 Fear is the least you'd expect from religion

Back to the roots

55 You'll be waiting for his arrival when you've killed more than what your soul is now worth

60 Question everything
Life is full of lies
Keep your mindset wide
Luther had a dream
Why can't I?
Save these kids from intellectual supremacy.

Living in a cage respecting orders from an imaginary mage

65 an imaginary mage,
an imaginary mage.

Make way for the God of the gaps.
The God who doesn't hesitate to pop a cap
